Arranger's Note:

Joseph Mohr wrote the words to Silent Night in Mariapfarr, Austria in 1816. Two years later, while serving as Assistant Pastor in the St Nicholas Church in Oberndorf, Austria, Mohr asked church organist, Franz Gruber to write a melody for his words. On Christmas Eve 1818, Gruber composed the song using his guitar, since the church organ was broken.

This arrangement uses the original melody of the song, which is more melodic and lovely than what has become the traditional melody. The simple accompaniment can be played on guitar or piano. The text is the most commonly used English verses, and includes the corresponding German text. An optional Oboe, Clarinet, or Flute may be added. Parts for string orchestra are also available.

*Oboe, Clarinet, Flute or Violin Solo. Optional Strings.
